S. B. Blood, Reporter.

Nov. 6—Rev. Alexander Jones is visiting his brother, H. H. Jones.

Sadie Preston from near Piqua visited with Mrs. Wenzel Thursday.

Charles Sanders had the misfortune to have one bone of his leg broken while driving cattle last Monday evening for Mr. Anderson. The horse that he was riding slipped and fell upon his limb, causing the accident.

We are glad to note the enterprise of our neighborhood. Mr. Vorhees is building a large substantial barn with a fine stone foundation. Mr. Daniels is also building a large two-story house. We congratulate them that they are so soon to be domiciled in a nice commodious home.

Mr. Gurley and Joe Adams dug a well on the Otter place last week and we understand they were well pleased with the supply of water.

Mrs. Hash, of Gas City, who was burned out a few weeks ago, desires to express her sincere thanks to the Silver Leaf people who have so kindly aided them in their affliction.

Mr. Dillingham had the misfortune to lose his best work horse last Sunday evening.

Mrs. Dillingham is still on the sick list. She does not recover as rapidly as her friends desire to see her.

Last Thursday Charlie Eastwood took his wife to Kincaid to be treated by a physician whom they had advised with previously. Their daughter Crystal accompanied them. She began to decline rapidly and died Wednesday morning at 2 o'clock. They brought her remains home on the train and the funeral took place Thursday at Pleasant Valley, where her body will be laid to rest. This is a great sorrow to the stricken husband and orphan children, as well as to many relatives and friends. Mrs. Eastwood previous to her marriage had been for several years a teacher and she had a wide circle of friends and acquaintances. They have the sympathy of the entire community.

Mr. Bilbee, the county superintendent, visited Silver Leaf school last week and made a pleasant talk to the children.

Jake Adams is again on the sick list.

Miss Pearl Wyckoff is here visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Walker are making a short visit here before going to their home in Kansas City.

After the older people had failed in their plans for a reception for the soldier boys, the young ladies undertook it. Although the time for preparation was short the reception was a success. It was held Saturday evening in the Fisher buildings. The rooms were crowded and after a brief and interesting program supper was served. All enjoyed the evening and the young ladies deserve a great deal of credit for so successfully carrying out their plans.

Geo. Noland, Rockland, O., says, "My wife had piles forty years. Da-Witt's Witch Hazel Salve cured her. It is the best salve in America." It heals everything and cures all skin diseases. C. B. Spencer & Co.

EAST IOLA.

"Occasional" Reporter.

Nov. 6—Two of the citizens in East Iola were the victims of the light fingered gentry that plied their trade at the reception last Saturday. Mrs. Crumley to the amount of upwards of two dollars and Mr. Postlewait to seventeen dollars. We are glad that some of them have been arrested and hope there can be enough evidence found against them to place them where they ought to be.
